Links To Sponsor Play At MSU

Memphis State Players

To Be Seen In Drama

The Memphis Links will sponsor its annual presentation of the Memphis State Players on Saturday, December 10, in the Memphis State Auditorium at 8:00 o'clock.

The exciting drama, "The House of Bernarda Alba," is a tragedy that will lead its audience into suspense, anxious moments and finally pleasures of relief.

Because there was difficulty last year in parking on the Memphis State campus, the play has been set for Saturday night this year when there are no classes in session. Without parking difficulty drama lovers will enjoy a night of pleasure.

Links, Inc. is an organization that spends its time and energy toward the educational and cultural development of the community. Among the many activities, it supplies a scholarship to Memphis State each year for a student interested in fine arts and drama; it makes gifts to the Goodwill Homes to help the young people there experience the cultural activities of Memphis such as concert singers and other stage artists.

It also furnishes a young man who has a promising career in piano the funds to study under an outstanding teacher; and it donates large sums of money annually to organizations for the betterment of society.

It has a life membership in the NAACP and pays a handsome sum to the local branch in Memphis each year.

Tickets for the House of Bernarda Alba may be obtained from any member of the Links organization. The price is $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for students. Mrs. Lillian Campbell is president chairman.

Outstanding Marine Sent On Duty In Vietnam

Marine Private First Class Larry E. Jones, son of Mrs. Janie Ellis of 1480 Prospect st., has arrived in Da Nang, South Vietnam, and is presently serving there as an engineer.

A 1966 graduate of Booker Washington High school where he played first trumpet in the band, he entered the U. S. Marine Corps on June 10, 1966, at the age of 17, two weeks after graduating from high school.

He completed his basic training at Parris Island, S. C., on Aug. 9, and was sent to California for further training.

While there, he was honored as the "Most Outstanding Marine" in his platoon and promoted to the rank of private first class.

Coffee Day Sales Will Benefit Elks' Christmas Fund

"Coffee Day" will be observed at all Harlem Houses in Memphis for a 24-hour period beginning at 7 a.m. on Tuesday, Dec. 13, and lasting until 7 the next morning.

Proceeds from all coffee sales will benefit the local Elks' Christmas Fund with baskets of food for the city's needy persons.

Last year Harlem Houses donated more than $300 to the Elks as a result of more than 3,000 cups of coffee sold during that period.

High School; Miss Harry Mae Simons, general chairman of the drive and principal of Magnolia Elementary School; Mrs. Beulah M. Williams, chairman of the City School Teachers Division and principal of Hanley Elementary School, and Miss Naomi Gordon, retired employee of Universal Life Insurance Co. Mr. Roddy and Miss Gordon are general solicitors.

Nearly 100 Working Job Corps Is In Dive For UNCF Seeking Boys Out-Of-Work

Nearly 100 persons are working in behalf of the annual United Negro College Fund campaign, it was announced this week by the general chairman, Miss Harry Mae Simons, principal of Magnolia Elementary School.

The sum of $5,604 has been reported to date in the drive which continues through December 31.

A "Miss UNCF" and a "Mr. UNCF" contest sponsored by the Pre-Alumni Club at LeMoyné will come to a close at midnight this Friday and should produce extra revenue for the campaign.

The teen-age Co-Eds Club, directed by Miss Erma Laws, also is soliciting funds for the UNCF drive.

Miss Simons said she expected big reports from volunteer workers this week.

The United Negro College Fund is a national fund-raising agency for 33 member colleges including LeMoyné, Lane, Fisk and Knoxville in Tennessee, Philander-Smith in Arkansas, Tougaloo in Mississippi, Dillard and Xavier in Louisiana and Oakwood, Stillman, Talladega and Tuskegee in Alabama.

Civic Club To Honor Man Who Aided Women

A 63-year-old man, who helped dig a woman from beneath a collapsed car, was honored by the Memphis Civic Club, came by and joined in the raking and scraping by hand until someone brought shovels to replace their blistered hands.

They continued the digging until the Fire Department arrived. Mrs. Campbell was taken to Methodist hospital in critical condition and died several days later.

The plaque will be presented to Mr. Dobbs by Theodore McLemore, former president of the civic club and a trustee of LeMoyné college.

Inscriptions on the plaque will list the date and the deed for which Mr. Dobbs is being cited.

Mr. Dobbs, who is an assistant inspector for the Memphis Bureau of Weights and Measures, came to the scene and began digging the steaming asphalt off the woman with his bare hands. James E. Beard, a driver for the Memphis Transit Authority, came by and joined in the raking and scraping by hand until someone brought shovels to replace their blistered hands.

Training Classes To Be Held In Three Cities

To update the skills of 360 unemployed or underemployed Tennesseans, occupational training classes will be conducted in Memphis, Nashville and Oneida, according to John B. Corban, manpower training coordinator for the State Employment Security Department.

State Employment Security offices across Tennessee are hunting out-of-school and out-of-work youth 16 through 21 who want to take advantage of work-training opportunities available in the Job Corps.

Boys in the Job Corps are learning skills to prepare for jobs in business and industry. They receive food, clothing, medical and dental care, recreational and travel opportunities, and spending money.

In addition, the young men receive a monthly allotment, payable when they complete their training, and they may make arrangements to have money sent home to a dependent while they are in the Job Corps.

Young men under 22 and parents of unemployed youth may find out more about the Job Corps at any State Employment Security office in Tennessee.

School officials who know about dropouts, church and civic leaders, welfare workers and others are being asked to make boys who need training or employment aware of opportunities available in the Job Corps.

Civic Club Council To Hold Election

The Bluff City and Shelby County Council of Civic Clubs will hold election of officers next Sunday, Dec. 11, at the Sarah Brown Branch of the YWCA at 1054 Mississippi blvd., starting at 4 p.m.

Nominees for which members will vote are:

President: Frank Kilpatrick, Roscoe McWilliams and Rev. Alexander Gladney. First Vice President: Matthew Davis and Tommy Evans. Second Vice President: C. B. Myers and

Top Of The 100 Club Expels Negro Members

The Top of the 100 Club speedily accepted the initiation fee and gave membership cards to the Harold J. Whalum family when they applied for membership there in November.

But it was a different story on last Sunday night when Mr. Whalum, executive vice president and actuary of Union Protective Life Insurance company, his wife, and their guest, Miss Erma Lee Laws, society editor of the Tri-State Defender, went to the club for dinner and the Frank Sinatra, Jr., show which was to follow.

Mr. Whalum said that when he, his wife and Miss Laws entered the club and were waiting to be seated by the head waiter, since they had made reservations, a club official, later identified as Carl Cleek rushed over to them and excitedly demanded, "What are you doing here?"

Mr. Whalum said he told the man to calm down and ask the questions in a proper manner, and when he did he wanted to know what member had invited the Whalums to the club and then informed him that he was a member.

After showing the official his membership card Mr. Whalum said he was told, "You are not supposed to have it. This club is for white only."

"I told him that to deny me entrance to the club with my wife and guest was embarrassing," Mr. Whalum said, "but he said, 'I don't see that this embarrasses you. You know that this club is for whites only.'"

In checking over correspondence he received when he was accepted for membership in the Top of the 100 Club on Nov. 16,

Two Women Injured By Jealous 'Friends'

One woman was stabbed in the stomach and another shot in the stomach in separate incidents last Saturday, but about the same reason: they had broken off their relationships with men to whom they had been attached.

In John Gaston hospital in the Intensive Care Unit with a stab wound in the upper part of the stomach is Mrs. Marie Green, 32, of 1190 Argyle.

Hospitalized after being shot once in the stomach with a .22 calibre pistol was Mrs. Bernice Hines, 42, of 1212 Keel ave. Her condition is listed as satisfactory.

According to police, Mrs. Green, a waitress at a cafe at 3372 Thomas st., became involved in an argument in the parking lot as she was about to leave for home about 2:30 a.m.

W. T. Henderson, 49, of 1172 N. Second st., was distressed, police said, since Mrs. Green had terminated their friendship about three weeks earlier. When she refused to renew it, he stabbed her.

He was arrested following the incident and has been charged with assault and battery.

Mrs. Hines, a former girl friend of Robert Taylor of 876 N. Claybrook st., was shot by the 35-year-old man after she left him and returned to the home of her brother, John L. Lewis at the 1212 Keel ave address.

After Taylor shot Mrs. Hines in the stomach, Mr. Lewis struck Taylor over the head with a .410 shotgun and disarmed him.

Both Taylor and Lewis have been arrested and police were continuing the investigation on Monday.

Ruin Of Rhodesia Economy Sought

LONDON (UPI) — The mandatory sanctions which Britain seeks from the United Nations would affect Rhodesia's most vital exports — its main source of foreign exchange to pay for needed imports.

Although not yet officially revealed, informed government sources said Britain would appeal to the United Nations to order its member to boycott Rhodesian exports of tobacco, Rhodesia's biggest export, and sugar, meat, chrome, asbestos and pig-iron.

The mandatory sanctions would mean United Nations members would vote to stop importing certain commodities from Rhodesia.

HONORARY MEMPHIANS — Michael U. Upke of Opobo, Nigeria, West Africa, and Philip Akpan of Mbiaya, Nigeria, are seen reading certificates of honorary citizenship presented to them by Memphis Mayor William B. Ingram when they appeared at the Laymen's Banquet in Memphis during a session of the West Tennessee Annual Conference of the CME church. The students said, "We are happy to be presented this honor as honorary ambassadors of the Nigerian government."

Arabs Confer In Face Of New Tension

JERUSALEM, Jordan (UPI) — The military high commands of the 13-nation Arab League headed for Cairo for a strategy meeting to shore up Arab unity in the face of new tension with Israel and rising Arab resentment against King Hussein of Jordan.

Spokesmen said the military situation at the meeting Wednesday would be the only matter discussed. Jordan planned to attend as a member of the League despite charges by militant Arabs that Hussein has been helping Israel.

Observers wondered whether

Jordan might resort to retaliatory measures against Israel to ease the pressure which flared anew Monday in the city of Nablus, 25 miles north of the Jordanian sector of Jerusalem.

One policeman was reported killed and "a number" of persons were injured as police and Arab Legionnaires clashed with Palestinian Arabs protesting a ban on a scheduled anti-Hussein demonstration.

Nablus, Jordan's third largest city and the scene of similar violence last month, was under tight military curfew.

The clashes Monday were the first violence in western Jordan after a period of relative calm.

Jordan — and much of the rest of the Middle East — has been uneasy since Nov. 13 when Israeli forces attacked three Jordanian frontier villages in a massive raid which Israel claimed was in retaliation for terrorist attacks on Israel targets from Jordanian soil.

If the United Nations by majority decision orders the sanctions and a member nation refuses to obey them, that nation is technically liable to get slapped with the same bans.

Training

He said that the training projects, approved for financing under provisions of the Manpower Development and Training Act, will include a multi-occupational youth training program in Memphis to train 80 production machine operators for machine shops, 40 combination welders, 20 automobile service station mechanics, and 20 general office clerks.

Each training program in the multi-occupational project will continue 36 weeks and will offer remedial education as well as skill training for young people 16 through 21. The Youth Opportunity Center at 43 N. Cleveland St. in Memphis will handle recruiting and referrals for the training, Corban reported.

The training program at Oneida will prepare 20 trainees for jobs in machine shops as production machine operators. The trainees for the 36-week course for adults will be recruited and screened by the State Employment Security office in Harriman.

Four training projects approved for Nashville will include a 36-week course at Tennessee A&I State University to train 40 electronics mechanics, three 14-week classes to train 60 food service workers, 20 24-week classes to train 40 cooks, and a 36-week program to train 20 automobile mechanics.

To help meet the demand for cooks in Memphis, a 36-week course will be conducted there to train 20 adults in the fundamentals of cooking, Corban said.

Starting dates for the classes are to be announced, and further information concerning the training and allowances available for jobless applicants may be obtained from any State Employment Security office, Corban reported. All of the projects are designed to meet skill shortages, he indicated.

Old Taylor Presents: Ingenious Americans

Jan Matzeliger (1852-1889)

His invention made Lynn, Mass., the shoe capital of the world

When Jan Matzeliger first went to work in a Lynn, Massachusetts, shoe factory, he was surprised to learn that just one shoe took hours to complete.

He discovered the reason for this was the laborious process by which hand lasters painstakingly pleated the leather and fitted uppers to soles.

Matzeliger couldn't believe that in the year 1877 a way couldn't be found to do the lasting job by machine. And so, on his own time, he began to experiment with ideas on how this might be done.

He started out by renting a room over the old West Lynn Mission. There, using scraps of wood, old cigar boxes and improved tools, he fashioned models of his idea. Finally, when he felt that he was on the right track, he used an old forge to mold the gears and cams that went into his working model.

His invention was an immediate success. Its adoption created thousands of new jobs for an operation that had been limited to a few craftsmen. Shoe prices were cut in half, and wages doubled. Within a short time, exports jumped from 1,000,000 to 11,000,000 pair a year. And Lynn, Massachusetts, had become the world's largest shoe manufacturing center. All because Jan Ernst Matzeliger had invented the first lasting machine.

ALL ABOARD FOR HOUSTON — Some 70 members of the Universal Life Insurance Company home office staff were transported to Houston, Texas, recently for the annual "Miss Universal" pageant held there, and here they are seen about to board chartered bus for the trip sponsored by the company. The workers were carried to Houston in two buses and were billeted at the Roman Inn there. Among the sights viewed while there were the Astrodome, Texas Southern University, Rice University and the Medical Center.

Universal Life Staff Gets Trip To Houston

Seventy members of Universal Life Insurance Company's home office staff were transported to Houston, Texas in mid-November for the Company's annual Miss Universal Coronation pageant. In addition, 30 members of the Company's field organization made the trip to Houston at the Company's expense.

The Miss Universal pageant is the culmination of the Company's Annual Founders Month contest. During September, the branch offices compete in various areas of field operations, with standards of performance set by the Home Office Administration Department.

The queen representing the winning district is proclaimed "Miss Universal Life Insurance Company." The representatives from the next three top districts comprise the queen's court.

This year's pageant is the first away from the home office. Houston was selected because of its facilities, and its interesting attractions.

Compton, California won the Founders Month Contest for the third consecutive year. Runners-up were Jackson, Mississippi, Lake Charles, Louisiana and Houston.

LeMoyne Sunday To Be Observed

Annual LeMoyne Sunday, sponsored by the college's senior class, will be observed during the 11 o'clock services at Second Congregational Church this Sunday, Dec. 11.

A reception for the guest speaker, Rev. Robert L. Polk, dean of chapel at Dillard University in New Orleans, will follow the hour of worship.

President of the senior class, Roderick Diggs, Jr., said the LeMoyne Choir, under direction of Prof. John Whittaker, will sing during the services.

Miss Rosa B. Little was crowned Miss Universal in a brilliant pageant held at Houston's Kaphans Inn Ballroom. Her attendants were Mrs. Lucy Newton, Jackson, Mississippi; Miss Shirley Dominique, Lake Charles, and Mrs. Rose M. Sewell of Houston.

The Roman Inn housed the Universal Life personnel who traveled to Houston on two Continental Trailways buses. A sight-seeing tour carried them to the Astrodome, through Greater Houston, by Texas Southern University, Rice University, the University of Houston, and the Medical Center.

The highlight of the trip — excluding the pageant, of course — was the Astrodome tour. The one-hour tour, which could easily have been prolonged by each wide-eyed visitor, confirmed previous reports that this is the eighth wonder of the world.

The home office personnel returned to Memphis Sunday night. The office had closed the previous Wednesday afternoon.

MVSC Choir And Band To Present 'Messiah' Sunday

ITTA BENA, Miss. — The Mississippi Valley State college choir will present Handel's "The Messiah" in the college auditorium on Sunday, Dec. 11, at 8 p.m.

The choir will be under the direction of Mrs. Henri Etta McCallum Lowe with the MVSC concert band accompanying the singers.

Dr. J. H. White, president of the school said, "We hope the entire public will continue to help us usher in the glory and sacredness of the Christmas season with this presentation."

He said that the college has enjoyed the attendance of the community at the rendition of Handel's masterpiece during past years.

Charlie Morris Elected To Board Of Civic Club

The Klondike Civic Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Clark of 940 S. Montgomery st. recently, and election of officers was held.

All board members remained the same with the exception of Charlie Morris, who was elected third vice president.

A meeting of the PTA of Klondike Elementary school was called by the principal, Mrs. A. F. Jones. Mrs. A. Allen accepted the chairmanship of the Nominating Committee.

The club's next meeting will be held in the Klondike school cafeteria and Jesse James, the president, has asked that all members be present.

Mrs. V. Moten is president of the club.

USIA Pamphlet Tells Of Negro In American Arts

U. S. Information Agency posts around the world are being supplied with a new pamphlet, "The Negro In America's Arts," for distribution and translation.

The 48-page, illustrated, full-color publication tells of the dramatic contributions being made by America's Negroes to the arts - on stage, on canvas and on the printed page. It is adapted from Topic, USIA's magazine for Africa.

The foreword states in part: "The role of the Negro in America's arts is an ever-expanding one. His field of interests - and accomplishments - embraces every cultural form. Marian Anderson, Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington, Harry Belafonte - these names come to mind at once. They are known to audiences the world over."

Friends Day Planned At Collins Chapel Sunday

"Friends' Day" will be observed Sunday, December 11, at Collins Chapel CME church. Serving on the program as chairman is Mrs. Annie Ketchum, a widely-known vocalist of the combined Collins choirs.

The guest speaker for morning service will be Mrs. Faye Gentry Lewis, a member of Orleans Elementary School faculty. She is a graduate of Booker T. Washington High School, LeMoyne College, and the University of Nebraska, where she received her master of arts degree. Mrs. Lewis is now doing post-graduate work on the campus of Memphis State University.

She will address the congregation on the subject of "Friends," and will be introduced by Mrs. Billye Motlow, remedial reading teacher of Lincoln Elementary School.

For the afternoon program, Mrs. Lucile Taylor Anderson, will be guest speaker.

Mrs. Anderson is member of Collins Chapel church, and is widely-known in civic and social circles. She is a substitute teacher's aide in the Memphis City Schools, and the mother of well-known Joseph Trotter, young political leader.

Mrs. Irma L. Ivy is general chairman for the program. Rev. William Smith is the pastor.

Rust Choir Will Sing At Centenary Dec. 11

HOLLY SPRINGS, Miss. — The Memphis Rust College Alumni will present its fourth annual program, Sunday, December 11, 4 p.m. at Centenary Methodist Church, 818 Mississippi Blvd.

The program will feature music by the Rust College choir under the direction of Miss Natalie Doxey. The choir is well known throughout the Mid-South for its outstanding performances. Several Centennial plaques will be presented to alumni for outstanding contributions to the college during its Centennial celebrations.

During the program the Memphis alumni will launch its Annual Fund Raising campaign for the college. The group has set a goal of $2,000 for this academic year. Last year they raised $1,600 for the college.

Funds raised this year will be used to provide aid to needy students and for other programs at the college.

During the 1965-66 year Rust College celebrated its centennial with the opening of three major new buildings which cost more than one million two hundred thousand dollars.

Mallory Knights Receive A Gift From Club 24

The Mallory Knights Charitable Organization received a boost from the Nurses' Club 24, when the group recently made a $25 donation.

Mrs. Eddie Mae Williams, president of the club, said, "As licensed practical nurses, we feel that we are able to recognize the problems of the poverty stricken and handicapped, and in some way be able to help."

She said that the club had made past contributions to the Mallory Knights and to other organizations.

Other members of Club 24 are Mrs. Gladys Bolden, Mrs. Ethel Burns, Mrs. Bernice Cox, Mrs. Sadie Elrod, Mrs. Gale Funches, Mrs. Hazel Gentry, Mrs. Florentine Johnson, Mrs. Arlene Miller, Mrs. Vester Sanders and Mrs. Dorothy Taylor.

Harry L. Strong, director of the Mallory Knights said other persons who wish to assist the club may do so by sending in checks and money orders to the Mallory Knights Christmas Fund at 280 Hernandez st., Memphis Tennessee.

Persons seeking aid this year from the organization should have letters into the office on or before Dec. 15, Mr. Strong said.

Coleman Chapel's Women Plan Tea

Plans for a Green Tea in January were made when the women of Coleman Chapel CME church met recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McDolah Burke at 1431 Davis st.

Also discussed was the seventy-first anniversary of the church, which will be celebrated in February 1967.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Adams will be hosts for the next meeting.

Rev. G. W. Trotter is pastor of the church.

Bond Will Be Seated Next Month: Experts

ATLANTA — The Georgia legislature apparently will bow to the will of the U. S. Supreme Court and seat controversial Negro Rep.-elect Julian Bond when it convenes next month. "I see no other alternative," said Monday the legislature had violated Bond's right to "free expression" by twice refusing him admission to the 1966 session because of his statements against U. S. policy in Vietnam.

SERVING 1,008,000 NEGROES IN THE TRI-STATE AREA

The Catholic Bishops

The Christian Church had never been more categorical, forthright and uncompromising on secular matters than when the Roman Catholic bishops of the United States unequivocally gave their endorsement to an all-important social question: Freedom of Residence.

From the very beginning of the Black Revolution, open housing has been a central phase of the struggle for freedom and equality. It is necessarily so, because freedom of choice is the very essence of the conceptual orientation of a free society. Without it, all else pales in significance. If men can't live together on a plane of equality, what is there to sustain the theory of democracy?

Though not going into the dialectics of the racial issue, the bishops, nevertheless, pointed their fingers at housing as being the source of grave tensions. In an obvious reference to the white backlash, they said that racial antagonism has been fostered under many emotionally charged and irrational slogans.

"It would be tragic," they said, "were our nation to suffer a deepening of the cleavage along racial or economic lines, with shouted epithets of hate replacing reasoned discourse."

"Since the aggrieved in our nation are mostly the poor and the members of minority groups, it is the clear duty of those who have jobs and status to talk openly and freely to those who have been less fortunate."

"We must learn, and learn firsthand, what it means to be poor, to be a poor Negro, a neglected Spanish-American or a disfranchised Indian. Open discussion of these problems is the beginning of their solution."

The Catholic prelates closed their historic statement with the hope that "all our Catholic people will join with their Christian and Jewish brothers, and indeed with all men of goodwill, in common projects which affirm and realize the dignity of all men."

Since Pope John, the Catholic Church has been trying to reconcile the doctrines of the past with the realities of the modern world. In his now celebrated encyclical on peace, Pope John fearlessly attacked racism as an evil which all Christians must combat with all the power at their command.

This stand on open housing by the Catholic bishops comes at a time when the question has been tossed into the political arena as one that seems destined to figure in future national elections with unpredictable consequences.

It is the more remarkable that despite the apparent unpopularity of open housing and the political storm it has stirred, the Catholic bishops did not sweep it under the rug, but had the moral courage to state their convictions in language as clear as the bells of St. Peter's in Rome.

Planning To Help Needy

Mrs. Zernia Peacock was the chaperone for the girls on the recent tour. It was sponsored by John Montesi and Bill Speros.

20 YWCA Members Take Tour To New Orleans

Twenty members of the Young Women's Christian Association made an exciting week-end trip to New Orleans, La. to tour every principle part of this charming, enchanting and interesting city. A chartered bus carried the group for a visit to the historic Old French Quarters or Vieux Carre.

A walking and browsing tour was started near the Old Square where Royal Street leaves Canal Street to plunge into the narrow old street, some of whose buildings were standing more than two hundred years ago. Royal Street was, almost from the beginning, the elegant Main Street of the Franco-Spanish town which was Nouvelle Orleans in the early 18th century.

The group saw the worn patios; walked down the narrow streets once walked by the Spanish grantees; viewed the lattice windows where the Creole belles of yesteryear looked; peeped through iron gates built over one hundred years ago; walked attractive court yards in the rear of buildings centuries old; saw an old dance hall which was once the scene of quadrone balls and is now a convent whose nuns are now engaged in teaching Negro children; marvelled at the "lace work" (grilled balconies of cast iron in patterns of oak leaves and acorns) on many buildings; viewed the Spanish Cabildo; former capitol of Spanish Louisiana where the Louisiana was formerly transferred from Spain to France in 1803 and from France to the United States in December of the same year and where every visitor from Jackson, Audubon, and Lafayette to those of our day, have trot their stairways and visited its court yard.

They viewed the iron front doors from which the arms of Spain and all Spanish ornaments were removed upon purchase of Louisiana by the Americans; the group walked through the Cabildo to Pirates' Alley where budding artist display their sketches and paintings hung out for sale; visited St. Louis Cathedral built in 1790; ate gumbo in a Gumbo Soup Restaurant; shopped; and ended the walking tour at Jackson Square, which was originally the hub of the town where nearly everything of importance to Louisiana's people was either begun or ended here, and was the scene of the actual transfer of Louisiana from France to Spain and final transfer to the United States. It is now a park with iron benches and an iron fence surrounds it.

Other places of interest visited were the docks and wharves along twenty-five miles of river frontage where ships were docked from many nations; old homes of Bayou St. John; St. Louis Cemetery with its above-ground burial vaults; New Orleans Bridge, the longest cantilever bridge in the nation; modern public buildings in the civic center; Tulane University, Dillard University, and Loyola University; Audubon Park with its two giant oak trees over two hundred years old; the levee; the parks with moss hung trees, so old that their branches trail on the ground; the dueling oaks; beautiful homes along the boulevards where roses bloom in December and threes are green year around; Lake Shore Drive with its beautiful homes in modern subdivisions; French and Spanish style homes; the Sugar Bowl Stadium; crossed Lake Pontchartrain (28 mile causeway across the lake); tour City Park and visited the Delgado Art Museum closed by the dueling oaks where for fifty years duels were fought on Sundays; and saw the famous Canal and Bourbon Streets.

The group left New Orleans to visit Baton Rouge, capitol of Louisiana and made a tour of the beautiful and unusual capitol building and grounds. From here the group journeyed to Natchez, Mississippi and saw the early American ant-bellum homes surrounded by their lovely gardens. Then on to Vicksburg where a tour was made of the famous battlefield.

Ladies making this interesting and enlightening tour were: Mrs. Ruth Weed, Mrs. Pearl Clark, Mrs. Lula Green, Mrs. Ophelia Van Pelt, Mrs. Minnie Cooper, Mrs. Helen Perkins, Mrs. Jesse Walker, Mrs. Alice Williams, Mrs. Irene Sanders, Mrs. Ida Jones, Mrs. Sarah Wilson, Mrs. Romia Reed, Mrs. Omega Shelton, Mrs. Rosa Murrell, Miss Anna Jones, Mrs. Mary L. Hawkins, Miss Annie C. Cargill, Mrs. Bernina Taylor, Mrs. Alice Minor, and Mrs. Addie G. Owen, executive director of the Sarah Brown Branch YCA.

Magicians Will Try To Muzzle Fisk Bulldogs

The Magicians of LeMoyné College tackle the Fisk University Bulldogs here in Bruce Hall this Friday night, Dec. 9, at 8 o'clock.

It will be a game in which the Memphians will be seeking revenge. They were defeated 98-95 by Fisk last Saturday night in the Fisk-sponsored NAIA Tipoff Tournament at Nashville.

LeMoyné had reached the Tipoff finals by downing Knoxville College, 101-78.

Two Memphians are on the Bulldog squad, Wesley Mitchell, a junior forward from Manassas High, and Nathaniel Perry, sophomore center from Booker T. Washington High.

Both LeMoyné and Fisk are members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and each has tacked up an SIAC victory this season.

The Magicians trounced Lane last week at Jackson, 95-79, and Fisk turned back Alabama A&M at Huntsville, 79-72.

Pace-setters for LeMoyné in the scoring department have been guards Richard Davis and James Sandridge, centers Willie Taylor and Warren Flemings, and forwards William Hayes and Bobby Todd.

Other LeMonites showing promise are guard William Meggett and forwards Marion Brewer, Jackie Robinson and Samuel Bachelor.

LeMoyné goes against Christian Brothers College here in the CBC gym, Dec. 15. The Magicians play two more road games before the Christmas holidays, Lincoln at Jefferson City, Mo., Dec. 12, and Alabama A&M at Huntsville, Dec. 19.

Forum Presented At

Sarah Brown YWCA

The Committee on Administration of the Sarah Brown Branch held a forum on November 10, at which time discussions were held on the Community and the YWCA.

Volunteer leaders in the YWCA heard four speakers on the subject, "Look Out The Window, Then Look In The Mirror." Panelist were Carl Obenauf, Executive Director of the Health and Welfare Council; Dr. Hollis F. Price, president of LeMoyné

College; Mrs. Mary W. Collier, Member All Association Program Planning Committee; and Miss Gilda Gilmore, member Senior Y-Teen Enter-Club Council.

Mr. Obenauf enlightened the group on what is happening in Memphis, its progress and its needs. Dr. Price spoke to the group of the community in which the YWCA is located, pointing out its problems and its strengths.

HUMBOLDT'S NEWS

The men of Morning Star Baptist Church completed their work for the quarter last Sunday when Rev. L. T. Purham, pastor of Lane Chapel C. M. E. church delivered the closing sermon for them. The music was a combined male chorus of men from the three churches, and the effort ended with over $3,000 more for the church than if they had not worked. Rev. J. H. Mathis is minister. Calvin Farmer, was chairman. The quarter lasted only two months this year because they wanted to leave December clear for works of charity.

The Rising Star No. 24, of order of the Eastern Star, voted five dollars for the Day Care Center and brought articles for a first aid kit for the school. Mrs. Emma Donald is worthy matron, Mrs. Loudicia Donelson, treasurer and Mrs. Sally Campbell secretary.

The P.T.A. of the Day Care Center is continuing its efforts to help in many ways. Their chattering dinner project was a success, and they have other plans that will be announced later for something for the holidays. They have an alert official staff with Mrs. Eva Cozart as president, and they are grateful for those who are supporting their projects.

The 50th anniversary observance and the piano recital by the students of Mrs. J. S. Vance was a huge success and she wishes to thank those who made the day possible, and for all who have been so responsive with cards, letters, gifts and donations to the school. A story of the occasion and pictures will appear in next week's paper.

The F. H. A. girls of Stigall High are selling the famous Stanley products, proceeds to be used in their work. Help the girls by giving them an order.

Lemon-Tea Cookies

About 8 dozen cookies

3 cups Dixie Lily self-rising flour*
2 tablespoons instant tea powder
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 cup butter or margarine
2 1/2 cup sugar
3/4 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 egg

Sift flour into mixing bowl. Combine tea and lemon juice. Cream together butter, or margarine, sugar and brown sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in tea mixture and vanilla. Beat in egg, then blend in flour. (If necessary, refrigerate dough until it can be handled.) Divide dough in half; form each half into 12 1 1/4-inch balls. Wrap in wax paper and refrigerate at least 24 hours. Slice dough 1/4-inch thick; place slices on ungreased baking sheet. Bake in preheated 400° oven 10 to 12 minutes, or until edges are lightly browned. Remove to wire rack; cool completely. Store in tightly covered container.

Golden Nugget Cookies

About 8 dozen cookies

2 1/2 cups Dixie Lily self-rising flour*
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup shortening
3/4 cup sugar 2 eggs
1 cup finely shredded carrots
2 cups sifted confectioners sugar
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
3 tablespoons orange juice
1 tablespoon milk

Sift together flour and nutmeg. Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in eggs and carrots; blend in flour. Drop by rounded teaspoonfuls onto greased baking sheet. Bake in preheated 400° oven 8 to 10 minutes, or until edges are lightly browned. Remove to wire rack. Blend together sugar, orange rind, juice and milk until smooth. When cookies are completely cool, dip tops in icing. Store in tightly covered container. VARIATIONS: Substitute 1 cup shredded toasted coconut or 1 cup chopped nuts for carrots.

Mincemeat-Walnut Muffins

12 muffins

2 cups Dixie Lily self-rising flour*
1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1 egg, beaten
3/4 cup milk
3 tablespoons melted shortening or oil
1 cup ready-to-use mincemeat

Grease medium muffin pan. Preheat oven to 425°. Sift flour into mixing bowl and stir in walnuts. Blend together egg, milk and shortening or oil. Blend in mincemeat. Add liquid all at once to flour mixture, stirring only until flour is moistened. Fill muffin cups 3/4 full. Bake 20 to 25 minutes, or until browned. Serve warm.

*If you prefer Dixie Lily plain flour add following ingredients to flour before sifting.
Mincemeat-Walnut Muffins: 1 tablespoon baking powder and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Lemon-Tea Cookies: 1 tablespoon baking powder and 3/4 teaspoon salt. Golden Nugget Cookies: 2 teaspoons baking powder and 1 teaspoon salt.

ERMA LEE LAWS

"I made courtiers . . . I never pretended to make friends, said Napoleon . . . On a rocky little island he fretted away the last years of his life — alone." Bruce Barton.

We mentioned last week that Fredericka and Dr. Booker T. Hodges feted her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. George Dixon with a reception in honor of their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary but space didn't allow us to tell you all about it.

The cute little hostess who always flashes her pretty smile was fetching in a gold dress — gold is a dominant color in the elegant home of the young couple — gorgeous gold draperies complemented by gold carpet immediately attract your attention in the living and dining rooms of the home.

We can't help but think of how appropriate the golden setting was for a handsome couple who're enjoying the golden years of a rewarding marriage. The couple has nine living children, 20 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. Mrs. Dixon gives this sagacious advice for a happy marriage: patience, understanding and love.

Fredericka was assisted in receiving by her attractive and youthful mother, Mrs. Merle Allen, her mother-in-law, Mrs. B. T. Hodges, Sr., her houseguest from St. Louis, Erma Strauther, and her friend, Gloria Lindsey.

Coming from out-of-town to share the occasion with their parents were Mrs. Gladys Spencer, St. Louis; George Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Eliza Brownlee, Mrs. Maurine Rowell, all from Chicago. Other children of the couple there from Memphis included Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Dixon, Mrs. Pauline Hudson, and James Dixon.

Still other relatives and friends who mingled all over the first floor of the lovely home were Mrs. Maggie Jeffries, a sister of the honoree; Mrs. Willie Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Hightower, he's a nephew to the couple; Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Dockery, Mrs. Mary Freeman, Mrs. Etta Morgan, and Mrs. Mary Morgan, cousins, and another cousin, Mrs. Millie Johnson, from Senatobia. Grandchildren of the couple included Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bradford, from Nashville; Larry, Joyce Ann, and Beverly Brownlee, Marilyn and Janice Rowell all from Chicago, Miss Maurine Allen, Tennessee State university, George Allen and Stanley Hudson.

The large family room with its pretty white fireplace and piped-in stereo music provided entertainment for other guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. Rennie Hill, of Senatobia; Mrs. Clara Mae Woodard, Mrs. L. M. Dean, Rev. and Mrs. N. Green, Ray Hightower, Mrs. Jolie McClinton, also from Senatobia, and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Johnson.

And when Jewell and "Ike" Walker were married Thanksgiving Day there were several members of her family who came for the wedding and reception. They were Alma and Melvin Norment, both LeMayne graduates who're social workers in New York City; Hazel Norment, Nathaniel and Rose Norment, Jr., Joella Flood, Jessie Eason, Rose Mary Wood, Lloyd Moore and Albert Norment all from Ft. Wayne, Indiana, and her brother Jerry, who came from Detroit to give the bride away.

All too often our schedule makes us late arriving at various functions and so it was last Sunday when we got to Union Protective Insurance company where a group from the Post Office was honoring the new postmaster, Lydell Sims, with a reception. The well attended party was spearheaded by Kenneth Whalum and Charles Poole.

A close knit family group naturally they have a family membership which will allow their athletic little sons, "Skipper" and "Roy" swimming privileges in the swank club. And Saturday night TSD Editor McCann and Cora Reid were guests at the second anniversary party of the Mid-South Coliseum where they were gifted with tickets to the Memphis State-Western Kentucky basketball game.

Catching up with our clubs; Peggy Cox and Lavinia Deberry were co-hostesses to the Rubaiyats where they gave such gifts as smoke ring scarves and beautiful jewelry. Capturing the prizes were Beverly Smith, Mattie Taylor, Gloria Ward, Mattie Sims, Jewell Walker and Doris Walls.

Other femmes indulging in girl talk and good food were Mary Rhodes, Audrey Wright, Gloria Young, Helen Green, Maxine Shipp and Clara Parker.

More Thanksgiving 'Potpourri' — Angela Flowers was home from Southern Illinois University visiting her parents, Marian and Charles Flowers. — And Pat and Carlos Gray here from Fisk — she's the former Pat Hooks, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Ben L. Hooks — and from Lincoln University came Otho Sawyer, son of Virgie Sawyer, and Ernest Bell, son of the Ernest Bells and nephew of Mattie Bell.

And Emma Jean Turner, her children, Allen and Allayne along with her mother, Mrs. Emma Exum, her aunts Mesdames Mattie Mitchell, Jimmie Bryant and Lucille Anderson visited her brother Harold Exum, who is an assistant district director of Scouting, and his wife, Jeanette and their sons Darryl and Michael in Chicago for the holidays.

Harriett and William Pippin and daughters, Bonnie and Tommye attended the Tennessee State Homecoming game where they were met by Harriett's mother, Mrs. B. D. Johnson of Lexington and the Pippins' son, Reggie who is "Mr. Freshman" at Kentucky State College. Harriett was "Miss Tennessee State" during her college days.

Meanderings: Chrystal Diane Tarpley, Ethel and Marvin's daughter, served as a Career Day Representative at her Alma Mater, Fisk university in 1964. While there the Honorary Co-Ed earned her Phi Beta Kappa key. She is a Computer Programmer with American Telephone and Telegraph Company in Mammoth, New York. The brilliant young lady toured Europe this summer with her mother and visited such places as Madrid, Rome, Naples, Vienna, Paris and London.

Marvin, Jr., a 1963 graduate of Boston University Law School at the age of twenty-two is with the Legal Department of the John Hancock Insurance Company's home office in Boston.

And did you know that Dr. Alvin Crawford was through here a few weeks ago? He was the first Negro student and graduate of the University of Tennessee Medical School. He is married to the former Alva Jamison, daughter of the Harold Jamisons on Quinn and the son of Mrs. Erma Oystern. Dr. Crawford was on his way to the Chelsea Naval Hospital in Dorchester, Mass., where another Memphis young medic, Dr. Lawrence Seymour is also stationed. Lawrence is now a Lt. Commander and is in the field of Urology. Janet and their little Lauren are enjoying the New England area. The family lives in Roxbury and are neighbors of the William B. Prices. He's a brother of LeMayne's Dr. Hollis F. Price.

And Martha Jean Steinberg, is now "Queen" of radio station WJLB in Detroit. She's no longer with WJLB. Her pretty Dianne is a contestant for "Miss Co-Ed" of the Detroit Co-Eds.

And speaking of the Co-Eds, Marilyn Carter, Beverly Steinberg, Dianne's cousin; Marsha Turner and Gwendolyn Williamson are the lovelies vying for the crown of "Miss Co-Ed". Clarice Hobson, an honorary Co-Ed and a former chairman of the Junior Board of Directors spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Lavada and Richard Hobson in Baltimore. Clarice is a frosh at Cedar Crest College in Allentown, Penna.

Speaking of college folks, several young Memphians "crossed the burning sands" to Greekdom at Fisk University. They were Robert M. Ratcliffe, Jr., who treaded in his father's footsteps and made Alpha Phi Alpha; Cecil Lincoln, who also followed his father and made Kappa Alpha Psi as did Tony Walker. Others making Kappa were Clinnison Johnson, Theodore Pickett and Wesley Mitchell. New Omegas on the campus are Fred Brooks and Nathaniel Perry. Dianne Briscoe, an AKA and popular Memphis coed on the campus, presented gifts to the eight young men.

The Memphis Links will present the Memphis State Players in "The House of Bernarda Alba" by Lorca, Saturday December 10, at 8 p.m., at the Memphis State Auditorium. A bouquet of roses to Mattie Sengstacke who slipped in her kitchen Sunday and broke her leg. She's at home recuperating.

NETTIE MAE RUPERT

Miss Rupert Will Be Wed On Christmas Eve

A wedding during the Christmas holidays is planned by Miss Nettie Mae Rupert and Ralph Herbert Jackson, both of Memphis.

She is the foster daughter of Miss Dorothy L. Akines of Memphis, and Mr. Jackson is the son of Mrs. Mattie Carlton of Memphis and Alvin Jackson of St. Louis, Mo.

The bride-elect was graduated from Hamilton High school, where she was a member of the National Honor Society, the Debutante club and the Spanish club.

Miss Rupert is a graduate also of LeMayne college where she was vice president of her senior class, served as "Miss Sonor" and a member Sigma Gamma Rho sorority. She is presently the basileus of the graduate chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho sorority.

Miss Rupert is a member of the faculty of Cummings Elementary school.

Mr. Jackson was graduated from Hamilton High school where he was a member of the football team, the Pen and Pencil club and the Library club.

The prospective bridegroom is a senior at Memphis State University, where he is majoring in physical education.

The wedding will take place on Saturday, Dec. 24, at the Magnolia First Baptist church.

Anne Frank's Teacher To Give Two Lectures

Dr. Rosey E. Poole, who was a teacher of Anne Frank in Holland, and who has promoted the work of Negro poets in Europe and in America, will be sponsored in two addresses this week in Memphis by the Memphis members of the Baha'i Faith.

Friday, Dec. 9, at 7 p.m. Dr. Poole, now a visiting lecturer at Alabama A&M College, will speak on "Anne Frank: The Child and the Legend", in the National Trust Life Insurance Co. auditorium, 2701 Union Extended. She will speak Saturday, Dec. 10, at 7 p.m. on "So Many People In One World," at the Baha'i Center, 36 N. Cleveland.

The events are being held in connection with United Nations Human Rights Day, celebrated annually by Baha'is throughout the world.

Born in Amsterdam, Dr. Poole became interested in American Negro poets over 30 years ago upon discovering the work of Countee Cullen. She has edited three anthologies, "Black and Unknown Bards", "Beyond the Blues", and "I Am the New Negro" and lectured at Howard University, Livingstone College, and 25 other institutions of higher learning in the United States.

Dr. Poole was a member of the Dutch Underground Resistance against the Hitler occupation of the country and in 1943 was imprisoned. However, she escaped and lived in hiding until the liberation.

She learned about the Baha'i Faith which has among its beliefs the elimination of all prejudices. Ten years ago, during a trip to Israel, she joined her first lectureship at Alabama A & M College, and in May, 1965 began her speaking career.

The lectures are free and the public is invited.

Berkeley Strike End Asked By Student Leaders

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI) — The student government and newspaper at the University of California urged an end to the campus strike.

Their appeals were made after the faculty gave its enthusiastic backing to Chancellor Roger W. Heyns for his strong stand against student rebels.

The faculty organization, called the Academic Senate, voted 795 to 28 Monday night to pledge "continued support on Parkway have the most unusual piano in their home. 'Tis really a collector's item for an antique collector."

And blonde Mabel Winfrey is winning raves and all sorts of compliments on her ever so delicious food.

And Velma Lois Jones, regional director of the AKAs spent the weekend in Chicago attending a meeting of regional directors of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

and cooperation" for Heyns. There were 143 abstentions.

The same group had endorsed demands of the Free Speech Movement two years ago following the arrest of nearly 800 in a sit-in demonstration.

The Student Senate, which earlier had supported the current strike, voted 13 to 7 against the boycott. Speakers for the majority said a strike suspension would provide time "for negotiation to provide a new direction."

The campus paper, The Daily Californian, emphasized in a special edition that quarterly examinations are scheduled next week. It said, "No one is going to cut finals for the strike demands, although mostly unmet."

"The strike must not continue because it cannot win."

Two famed strippers from Paris' Pigalle area found themselves in an unusual situation on the set of Universal's "The Champagne Murders." They were hired by director Claude Chabrol to keep their attire intact. He needed two beautiful girls, fully dressed, to beginto strip only to be interrupted by a drunk.

PLANS WEDDING — Miss Sharon Elaine Hall will become the bride of McArthur Carter on Sunday, Dec. 18, in a ceremony to be performed at the Golden Leaf Baptist church with Rev. L. A. Hamblin, the pastor, officiating. A senior at Tennessee A&I State University, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Middlebrook of 889 Mosby ave. The prospective groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Carter of Miami, Fla., and a teacher in that city's school system.

Philos Report On Activities For Quarter

The Philo's of Sigma Gamma Rho sorority, 1965-66, held the first meeting of the current year at the sorority house at 805 Saxon ave., and was climaxed with a stay at home tea. Mrs. Earnest Kirkland was chairman of the event.

Mrs. Essie L. Pope was hostess for the October meeting held at her residence at 1361 Mallory. A turkey dinner was served.

The November meeting was the church at 1297 Gausco rd.

SPORTS HORIZON

By BILL LITTLE

The Clem Haskins-led West Kentucky Hilltoppers inaded the Mid-South Coliseum st Saturday night and found Memphis State a remarkably proved basketball team over ie Tiger quintet that they rubbed into submission, 00-61, last season in Bowling reen. The Kentuckians were lad to leave town with a 3-44 decision over Memphis tate as 11,014, a record MSU all cool 28.3 percentage after ame out on a chilly night wish new coach Moe Iba ell on his debut.

Memphis State's downfall
oiled down to two factors:
rst, the superior leadership f All-American Haskins and econdly the inability to hit n the part of the Tigers in he second half. Particularly as this true of Mike Butler, ho went 0-12 from the floor in he final 20 minutes of the efensive struggle.

While MSU was being held a check by Western's tricky one defense Haskins broke rough to score 29 points gainst two defenders who drew a total of nine persona fouts trying to contain the Campbellville, Ky. senior. During one stretch in the second half the ball hawking Haskins scored all 18 of team's points and the agile cager accounted for the entire six field goals the Hilltoppers registered in the second half.

Mackie Don Smith and Mike Butler led the Memphis State attack with 19 and 14 tallies respectively. The Tigers ended the evening shooting an overall cool 28.3 percentage after burning the strings for 47 percent in the first half. Herb Hilliard, the first Negro to make the MSU varsity, failed to see action in the curtain raiser.

MSU CLASSIC

Coach Iba and his new oriented offense are back in the Coliseum this week against Texas A&M and return next Friday and Saturday to host the third annual MSU Classic.
The Tigers play Arkansas and Maryland goes against Oklahoma State in the opening round. The Cowboys from Stillwater, Okla., are coached by the famed master of the man-to-man defense, Hank Iba, the father of "Little Moe" of Memphis State.

TWO OF HUMBLE OIL'S newest marketing staff members in Chicago are Grover C. Frierson, left, and James H. Capers, seated at right. As a result of promotions, each is in charge of an oil-heat sales territory for the oil company in the nation's second largest city—one of the biggest-volume markets for heating oil in the world. Company is the largest U.S. oil refiner and marketer.

MEMPHIAN AT KC — Miss Anna Smith, senior at Knoxville College, majoring in Business Education, is first attendant to Miss KC (Knoxville College) for the 1966-67 academic school year. She is shown participating in the homecoming activities.

Miss Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
William H. Smith of 2388 Douglass Street in Memphis. In the picture with her are:
Dr. Robert Owens of the KC faculty, and Raymond Hawkins, her escort.

LEMOYNE CAGERS SECOND

If their first three games is any indication, the LeMoyn Mad Magicians will have another high scoring cage five as Coach Jerry Johnson's charges won two of three games last week on the road including the second place trophy in the first annual Fisk NAIA Tip-off Tournament. The host Bulldogs eked out a 98-95 win over LeMoyn in the finals.
The Magicians swamped Knoxville 101-78 to gain the final round.

LeMoyn opened its season last Thursday with a strong second half showing to down
Lane 95-79 in Jackson, Tenn.
James Sandridge and Richard Davis led the torrid LeMoyn scoring pace which averaged 92 points per game. Davis shot at a 22 point clip with Sand-ridge not far behind at 19. Le-Moyn will be seeking vengeance Friday when Fisk moves into Bruce Hall for a regular scheduled SIAC clash.

BOWL BOUND TEAMS

Tennessee A&I and Muskingum College put their identical 9-0 records on the line when they meet headon in the Grantland Rice Bowl Saturday afternoon in Murfreesboro, Tenn. The passing wizardry of Eldridge Dickey has the odds makers favoring the Big Blues by a touchdown. A&I was lucky to get out of last year's Rice Bowl with a 14-14 tie with Ball State.

Morgan State, the CIAA champion, becomes the first predominantly All Negro school to participate in the Tangerine Bowl when the Bears take on West Chester College, a contest slated for Tampa, Florida also this Saturday after noon.
For Morgan's Little All-American guard Willie Lanier
it will be quite a busy day.
After participating in the Tangerine Bowl Lanier will fly to Washington to receive the CIAA Player of the Year Award at the Touchdown Club's banquet.

Lanier is a three year letterman, 6-1 and 240 pounds of solid football player. He has never played in a losing football game for Morgan and is a great pro prospect according to news from those who have watched him in Baltimore.

Feature Noted Lawyer In Gordon's Profile

Charles E. Lloyd, eminent Los Angeles attorney and devoted worker in the field of social relations, is being featured by the Gordon's Dry Gin Company in its current advertising campaign.

The Lloyd ad is another in the growing series highlighting the achievements of noted Negroes. This campaign is appearing in newspapers and magazines throughout the country.

The selection of Mr. Lloyd was based on his outstanding record of accomplishments. He has the distinction of being the first Negro Chief Prosecutor in the criminal division of the City Attorney's office and exhibits the highest standard of moral and social obligation to his community.

The Gordon's Company also concerns itself with an obligation to the community; that of maintaining the very highest standards of quality that dates back to Alexander Gordon himself. Since 1769 when Mr. Gordon first created his gin in London, England world of its superior formula has spread to the four corners of the earth.

... today, Mr. Gordon's gin is rightfully the world's largest seller.

During his years as an officer on the Los Angeles Police Force, Mr. Lloyd pursued his ambition to become a lawyer.
He attained his law degree from the University of Southern California and shortly afterward passed the California Bar Association examination.
He is also associated with Van Norman University as a Professor of Law.

CHARLES E. LLOYD

Mr. Lloyd devotes much of his time in giving legal aid and assistance to the underprivileged in the Los Angeles Negro community. As part of a non-profit organization called "Operation Bootstrap," he has done effective work in helping the needy through training and placement in productive occupations.

He is also affiliated with the Youth Opportunities Board, which offers counseling and guidance to minors, is both member and advisor to the Big Brothers Avalon Community Center and serves as legal advisor and part-time coach for the Baldwin Hills Pop Warner Football League. The League was founded by two members of the Los Angeles Police Department and is considered to be one of the best scholar-athlete programs in the nation.

India Wins Davis Zone

CALCUTTA (UPI) — Ramanathan Krishnan of India rallied to defeat Thomas Koch of Brazil 3-6, 6-4, 10-12, 7-5, 6-2 in the concluding singles match of the Davis Cup interzone finals and sent his nation into the challenge round against Australia Dec. 26-28.

The match had been carried over from Monday when darkness descended with Koch holding a 2-1 lead in sets.

Krishnan, India's top-ranked player who won opening singles match Saturday and teamed with Jaidip Mukerjee to win
Sunday's doubles, fell behind 0-3 in games in the fourth set but staged a spectacular recovery to level the match at 2-2. Krishnan broke Koch's service in the 11th game and held his own service to take the set.

Citizens Invited To Give View On Housing

"All persons who wish to p. m. Those who are per-testify to the Memphis Cit-zens Advisory Committee of the Department of Urban Renewal and Public Housing, are invited to be present and testify to the Committee as to conditions and problems prevailing in the community insofar as housing is concerned."

The committee will hold public hearings in the Mayor's Conference Room, City Hall, on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, December 13, 14, and 15 from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00

primary concern. We hope that a fund of knowledge concerning the state of Memphis housing can be assembled so that we will then in a position to give recommendations to the Memphis Housing Authority, and to the Memphis City Commission. All material will be recorded and made available to the City Commission and the Citizens' Advisory Committee. Only by knowing the problem and its nature can we deal intelligently with it."

This marks one of the first times in the history of the city that local citizens have been invited to meet with a representative group and state their views publicly about the housing situation in Memphis.

PLANNING XMAS PARTY
— Members of the Cornette Social club are making plans to give toys to unfortunate children at Christmas, a project they carried out last year, with the Porter-Leath home. Seated here from left are Mrs. Izole Randle, business manager; Mrs. Louise Parker, president; Otis Reynolds, club sweetheart; and Mrs. Helen Bell, treasurer. Standing from left are Mrs. Elise Bowen, Mrs. Gladys Price, reporter; J. C. Williams, vice president; and Mrs. Jacqueline Hart, secretary. Not shown are Mrs. Ophelia Henry, assistant secretary, and Mrs. Louise Bills, queen.

MRS. LYDIA WILLIAMS

Union Protective Honors Woman For Work In October

Mrs. Lydia Williams, an agent at the East Memphis District of the Union Protective Life Insurance Company was the most outstanding agent for the month of October from the standpoint of production.

Mrs. Williams completed her collection with an average of 105 per cent, and with an increase of $2.49. She also hit the jackpot which contained $27.69 and was honored for accomplishments during a recent at the East Memphis District meeting.

First runner-up was Mrs. Queen Ester Hopkins with a 105 per cent collection. Second runner-up was Mrs. Leandras Jones, who collects in the Orange Mound Area, with a 103 per cent collection.

November competition among the agents promises to be keener according to Lenal Enderson, manager of the district.

Portugal's Macao Faces New Riots; Mass Exodus Set

MACAO (UPI) — Portuguese families prepared to flee this tiny enclave at the first sign of new rioting or threatening moves by neighboring Red China. Peking accused the Portuguese government of "brutal atrocities" against its overwhelmingly Chinese population.

About 2,000 residents have already moved to Hong Kong, about 35 miles east of here, in the wake of bloody weekend rioting that left an estimated eight persons dead and at least 70 seriously injured.

Many residents, fearful of fresh violence between pro-Communist Chinese and police or a takeover by Red China, were leaving by boat for Hong Kong. Others were making plans to leave if the situation does not return to normal.

OES Chapter Collects Food For Needy Here

The Order of the Eastern Star Chapter Observance of the Esther Festival was presented Friday night, November 18 during a smorgasbord dinner.

It was highlighted by an address delivered by Mrs. Rosa B. Whitsan. She was introduced by Mrs. Fannie Dobbins of Jackson, Tennessee. Mrs. D.B. Mayers, responded to the greeting extended by Mrs. Roland Powell. A piano solo was rendered by Mrs. Ethel Wynn. A vocal solo was rendered by Miss Marilyn Watkins, of Emmanuel Episcopal Church.

Presentation of Queen Esther and Grand Officers was made by Mrs. Annie Brancy. Eighteen bags of food were collected and distributed to the needy, the main purpose of the program. A sum of money was collected to be distributed to some worthy project.

Jaycees Plan Toy Drive For Kids

The Bluff City Junior Chamber of Commerce is preparing the holidays for youngsters with the donation of toys to needy children.

This year's project is headed by Otis Lightfoot. On the committee are Rufus R. Jones, Harrell Moore, Curtis Garrison, Freeman Lester, Norval E. Powell, and Ernest Owens, president.

Proceeds from the organization's "Dance For Toys" and donations from the city's leading businessmen will provide toys.

TSU's Yearbook Wins Two National Honors

NASHVILLE — Tennessee State University was notified last week that its 1966 yearbook, The Tennessean, won two top honors in national competition at the University of Minnesota and Columbia University.

Lloyd Ringgold of Pittsburgh, Pa., a senior, as editor-in-chief and a staff of student editors are responsible for the publication. Ringgold is an industrial education major concentrating in printing.

Mrs. Ann Williams Bell, of the Office of Publications, is Yearbook Faculty Advisor. The Tennessean is produced in the Office of Publications of which Earl S. Clanton, III, is director.

"The Year of the Tiger", the school's mascot, is the theme of the 1966 yearbook and it was carried out from its simulated tiger striped cover to cover.

At Columbia University, the Tennessean was one of only six first place winners in the college division for letterpress yearbooks. The awards presentation came during the 32nd annual meeting of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

The 46th National Yearbook Critical Service of the Associated Collegiate Press presented a first class honor rating to the yearbook in competition at the University of Minnesota.

Lane Professor Leaving For European Lectures

Dr. Edward A. Hudson, chairman of the Division of Natural and Physical Sciences at Lane College has been notified that he will be featured in the next issue of the NADUS Journal as an outstanding doctor in the United States. He has been appointed for the fifth year as a visiting scientist for the Tennessee Academy of Science.

Dr. Hudson has been invited to lecture in England and Switzerland in late December and early January. He will leave Jackson on December 16, and depart from New York via Air India on December 17, arriving in London on December 18. He will visit the London School of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene and King's College. Christmas Day will be spent with his sister in Cheshire, England. He will then return to London on December 26 as guest of two British physicians and surgeons and Dr. George Dukes at the London School of Tropical Medicine where he is serving in the Department of Parasitology.

Prior to going to England, Dr. Dukes served as associate professor of biology at Union University here in Jackson.

December 27, Dr. Hudson will fly to Switzerland to lecture at the University of Basel and at the University of Zurich. He will then go to London, Rome, Italy, and Mannheim, Germany. While there he will be the guest of Dr. Errik Undritz, a famous and outstanding hematologist. He will return to Lane's campus on January 6.

Dr. Hudson earned his A. B. degree from Exeter University, Exeter Devon, England, the M.S. degree from North Carolina State College in biochemistry, the Ph. D. degree from North Carolina State College, and the MPH degree from the School of Public Health, University of North Carolina. He had done further study in a number of institutions in the United States, including Duke University, American University, and the U. S. Medical School and Research Institute and is the holder of several honorary degrees. He is a member of the Lane College faculty.
